

101st Ques: What are the main features of the 101st Amendment to the Constitution of India?
 The 101st Amendment to the Constitution of India, which came into effect on 1st January 2017, introduced significant changes to the taxation system. It primarily aimed to simplify the tax structure and reduce the burden on taxpayers. Key features include the introduction of a new tax regime for individuals, the abolition of the distinction between resident and non-resident individuals, and the introduction of a new tax rate for income tax.

Ques 2: What are the main features of the 102nd Amendment to the Constitution of India?
 The 102nd Amendment to the Constitution of India, which came into effect on 1st January 2018, introduced significant changes to the taxation system. It primarily aimed to simplify the tax structure and reduce the burden on taxpayers. Key features include the introduction of a new tax regime for individuals, the abolition of the distinction between resident and non-resident individuals, and the introduction of a new tax rate for income tax.

Ques 3: What are the main features of the 103rd Amendment to the Constitution of India?
 The 103rd Amendment to the Constitution of India, which came into effect on 1st January 2019, introduced significant changes to the taxation system. It primarily aimed to simplify the tax structure and reduce the burden on taxpayers. Key features include the introduction of a new tax regime for individuals, the abolition of the distinction between resident and non-resident individuals, and the introduction of a new tax rate for income tax.

Ques 4: What are the main features of the 104th Amendment to the Constitution of India?
 The 104th Amendment to the Constitution of India, which came into effect on 1st January 2020, introduced significant changes to the taxation system. It primarily aimed to simplify the tax structure and reduce the burden on taxpayers. Key features include the introduction of a new tax regime for individuals, the abolition of the distinction between resident and non-resident individuals, and the introduction of a new tax rate for income tax.

Lesson 29
This is a school thing
Lesson 30
This is a school thing
Lesson 31
This is a school thing